SCHOOL SONG

Cheer for the Blue and Gold
Waving forever;
Pride of old Brookfield High,
May she droop never.
We'll sing a song of our flag today,
Cheer for the team at play;
On to the goal we'll fight our way
For Brookfield High!
Say, say, gang,
Cheer for the Blue and Gold
Waving forever;
Pride of old Brookfield High,
May she droop never.
We'll sing a song of our flag today,
Cheer for the team at play;
On to the goal we'll fight our way
For Brookfield High!

BROOKFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

PRESENTS ITS YEARBOOK

THE

ECHO OF 1947

Volume XVIII.

"WINTER ON THE GREEN"

FOREWORD

Old Father Time is ever at work. He is now about to close the door on our high school days. He beckons us on to a new phase of life—to greater responsibilities and cares.

As we the Seniors of 1947 accept the challenge of our future and go out to take our places in the world, we publish this Yearbook with the hope that as time goes on, we may often open its magic pages and remember that such days were Our YOUTH!!

ECHO STAFF

At Table—M. Saneto, M. Torma, D. Mittal, B. Christy, J. Dick.

Standing—C. Sloan, D. Cleveland, Mrs. Morris, P. Hughes, W. Mullen.

THE ECHO STAFF

Someone has the ability to plan thoroughly and intelligently, and someone else has the technique to draw artistically. Someone has acquired the ability to advertise and make sales, and someone else is able to write effectively. Someone must be speedy and accurate in typing, and someone must supervise the engraving. Add a bit of humor and a skillful knowledge of mounting pictures, and proportioning and balancing of pages. Altogether, something profitable and worthwhile can be achieved—the publication of a Yearbook.

In Brookfield High School this project is the financial responsibility of the senior class. Each year the senior class advisers, with the assistance and cooperation of the English Department of the school, choose the senior students who, they feel, will best fill each position on the Yearbook Staff. Plus the ability to fill his particular position, the staff member must be dependable and willing to work until he has reached his ultimate goal.

We, the members of the staff, have not recognized this undertaking as a task, but as a joy, an honor, and a pleasure. We feel that we have not labored in vain, but that we have composed a book of which we are very proud.

Remembering our own pleasures in composing the book, the staff hopes that you will enjoy to the utmost this, our Echo of 1947.

Not in Picture: Dick Reese, Eugene Peters.

Tribute to Board of Education and Our Parents

In particular, We, the Class of 1947, feel deeply indebted to those who have made our education possible. Through the untiring and devoted efforts of our Board of Education and our parents we have been privileged to enjoy an excellent education. By dint of their perseverance and determination we have realized an understanding of the true aim of learning. Their devotion has been a great lesson in the answer to full and unselfish living; for them life has been one of "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself."

We truly hope that our actions and our appreciation will prove the worthwhileness of their great concern for us. May we acquire from them the "esprit de corps", and likewise be as faithful and as interested in the welfare of Neighbor as Thyself."

* * * * *

The prosperity of a Country depends, not on the abundance of its revenues, not on the strength of its fortifications, nor on the beauty of its public buildings; but it consists in the number of its cultivated citizens, in its men of education, enlightenment and character.

—Luther

DEDICATION

MR. KOHLER

We, the Senior class of 1947, dedicate our yearbook, the Echo, to Mr. Kohler.

The friendliness and faithfulness of "Pop", both as bus driver and friend, will be remembered and cherished by the youth of Brookfield forever.

A NAUTICAL LEAVE

Our lives are like the mighty ships,
Sailing on from day to day,
Stopping off at certain ports,
Gathering cargo along the way.

At first we sailed through eight long years;
Then anchored at Brookfield High.
Our eyes are moist with tears again,
For it's time to say Good-bye.

We love our Captains everyone
And all other members of the Crew,
With their kind and helping hands
They've laden us with gifts anew.

And now we must go sailing on;
Life beckons us to another shore,
We have a task in life to do.
God, help us as you've done before!

The time has come for us to sail.
Dear Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, too.
May you be good seamen all the way!
Gee, it's tough to bid A-D-I-E-U.

Mary Catherine Burns.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

In the year nineteen hundred and forty-three, while our country was struggling in a great battle, called World War II, one hundred and twenty eager youths entered Brookfield High School as freshmen.

We soon became organized, electing the following officers: Frank Kalvoda, president; Jennie Nosek, vice-president; Barbara Lou Christy, secretary; and Chester Sherman, treasurer. Our colors were scarlet and gray; and our flower, the pink rosebud.

True to our motto, "Always willing, never failing," we made a good start in that new era and came through a very successful year.

The next year we returned as sophomores and chose the following officers: Jack Donaldson, president; Vincent Harshman, vice-president; Bernice Escover, secretary; and Barbara Neral, treasurer. "Conquer" was our motto; green and white were our colors, and the white rosebud was our flower.

Such interesting pastimes as football, basketball, and dancing filled that year, with many of the students from our class participating in the activities.

The next year we returned as Juniors, very proud to be upper classmen.

The leaders this year were Edward Ghizzoni, president; Raymond Davies, vice-president; Bernice Escover, secretary; and Charles Kalinich, treasurer.

Our motto was "Always willing, never failing, launch our ship and keep on sailing." Our class colors were blue and white, and our flower was the pink rosebud.

We enjoyed more football, basketball and other activities, but most important were our class play, "Don't Take My Penny", Junior-Senior Prom, and Class Day.

Our officers during the Senior year were Edward Ghizzoni, president; George Young, vice-president; Bernice Escover, secretary; and Jack Donaldson, treasurer. Our class colors, motto, and flower remained the same. Mrs. Morris and Mr. Edwards were our advisers.

The class play, the "Night of January Sixteenth" proved a huge success.

Who can ever forget the Tax Levy Parade in which most of the seniors took part? Remember the Homecoming Game and Dance when Peggy Hughes reigned as Pigskin Queen and Bonnie Jones and Dora Mae Cleveland served as attendants?

The senior class of forty-seven will look back with pleasure to the Junior-Senior Prom and a little sadly to commencement.

We are leaving Brookfield High, but not alone. With us we will carry fond memories of football and basketball games, of dances and parties, and also of you.

STELLA YASHNIK.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hi, you jolly good seniors!
Be patient one and all—
We see your humorous future
In the gypsy crystal ball.
Ten years from now you'll wonder
How we knew your future life;
Whether you would be rich or poor,
A hen-pecked husband or a farmer's wife.

Anna Marie Alexander's Barber Shop's theme is "We don't dye hair, we just murder it."

Notice: Bob Allan and Agnes Baxter to be married in Brookfield Methodist Church—services to be held by the Reverend Donald Bible. (The special deluxe price is only $1.98 per couple, boys.)

The name of William Haller will live forever in the field of medicine for his marvelous discovery of how to cure mumps by the use of atomic energy.

Bill Baxter is now the nation's most popular swoon-crooner. He gives one bow tie for every squeal.

Jane Baxter is one of Masury's leading business women.

George Bogner is trying to persuade wifey that men are not so good dish-washers as women.

Irene Bohach and Mary Lou Jones are co-owners of the new Isaly's store in Brookfield. They boast "57" varieties of ice cream.

Bill Bullock has just returned from a successful trip to Mars via the skyrocket.

Mary Catherine Burns has won national recognition for her novel "Naughty But Nice" or "Strange Love of the Blue-Eyed Blonde".

The time Eugene Calvert spent dreaming in school was not wasted. His dreams have all been fulfilled.

If you notice a decrease in your income tax, it's because our good friend, Jean Camerlengo, is employed by the Board of Internal Revenue.

Walt Chambers is trying to explain to his young son: "You see, Junior, I really couldn't say how brilliant I was in school—I was never there for a test."

Brookfield is well represented in the Children's Wards of the Youngstown Hospital. Nurses, Barbara Lou Christy is teaching them to read; Barbara Neral, to write; and Anne Horvath, to add.

Jack Donaldson, the second Fred Astaire, and Dora Mae Cleveland, his dancing partner, are booked for a week's engagement at Yankee Lake.

Bill Cornell is manager of one of the nation's largest trucking concerns. Anybody have anything he wants moved or hauled?

Dick Zimmerman is arguing with Bonnie Coxson at the curb market, "I swear I put one dozen pumpkins in that peck bag."

Frances Edell and Joan Shaner haven't decided upon a career. Does anyone have a suggestion?

Bill Davey and Bill Mullen did so well at Brookfield they have been promoted. They are now managers of the Ohio State football squad.

CLASS PROPHECY

Raymond Davies is United States Ambassador to England and is trying to convince the inhabitants that we have very little trouble with the Indians.

Ben Dickson has moved back to Pennsylvania. He didn't think much of Ohio's hunting material.

Martha Krempels now owns her own flying field. Marie Giovanetti is employed as a flight instructor. Incidentally, she instructs only male students. Lois Edwards and Delores Mittal are chief "grease monkeys." That's why there have been fewer crack-ups lately.

Bernie Escover is appearing as a guest comedienne on Jack Benny's program. Mr. Benny's getting up in years and Bernie is hoping to get his place on the air.

Mary Faber is listening to a guy named "Eddie"—"You're sweet enough without putting sugar on the strawberries. Besides it's still rationed."

Pauline Fields is feeding her husband and three children delicious red and blue capsules.

John Filipovich hasn't any patients left after teaching little Flip how to kick a football. "My, was I that dumb?"

Andy Gerlock has been working on a substitute for gasoline in airplanes. Yeast and baking powder raise baked goods, don't they?

Dotty Haller is teaching home economics at good old Brookfield High. Now she knows why Miss Russell became angry once in a while.

Vincent Harshman is one of the world's greatest doctors. He is explaining to Nurse, Margie Logan, that you can't cut up people just for fun.

Byron McGhee has just surprised the world and himself by discovering Vitamin X.

Bonnie Jones is sighing, for there's only six more months for her hubby to campaign for the Presidency of the United States. Eddie Ghizzoni, the President to be, has promised her a good job as First Lady if she helps to put this deal over with a bang.

Iris Hatwood is under contract to the New York Metropolitan Opera Company.

Chuck Kalinich is proprietor of Little Canada's only confectionery store. Kisses are the special feature. (Candy ones, of course).

Richard Kroner, Frank Kalvoda, and Paul Mosora have bought out Schuster's and are making buckets of money.

Bob Kovach is now coaching basketball at Westminster.

Joan Layo is making a fortune with her pen. She writes "Advice to the Lovelorn" in the Masury Times.

Bill Litman is a successful electrician. He's looking for someone to shock.

Frank Mahanovich operates the "West Hill Dairy." We know you can't guess his specialty, so we'll tell you. It's milkmaids.

John Nasin is raising Christmas trees and selling them at bargain prices. Give your order to his private secretary, Jean Snyder.

Ed Nagy lives, weeks at a time, in the doghouse with Rover.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1947, declare this our last will and testament, signed, sealed and accepted this 16th day of May in the office of Paul R. Slater, Brookfield High School, Brookfield, Ohio, Trumbull County, State of Ohio, U. S. A., witnessed thereby Attorney John R. Edwards, and Clerk, Mrs. H. Morris.

To Mr. Slater we leave thanks for the guidance that he has given us in the past two years.

To Mr. Wepsic we would like to leave money as he desires, but since we ran short we find it impossible.

The "El Grande Quince" leaves its acquired knowledge to the worthy Juniors and Beverly Verde.

To Mrs. Morris we leave thanks for the time and patience that she has shared with us to teach us grammar and literature.

We leave Mr. Edwards sadly. We'll really miss his government classes.

Bernice Escover leaves her job as statistician to Agnes Ferry.

Don Bible leaves his debating ability to Don Doud.

Dick "Casanova" Blair leaves the girls still wondering which one it really is.

Eddie Ghizzoni leaves still leading as president.

Stella Yashnik leaves for Warren City Hospital.

Joan Layo leaves her giggles to Lilly Bachik.

Agnes Baxter leaves still singing, "You'll never get to heaven in Bob Allan's car."

Yvonne Brownlee leaves her struggles in shorthand to her sister, Shirley.

Mary Catherine Burns leaves to join her brother in the corn field. Oh, corn!

Jean Camerlengo leaves her studious ways to Gordon Suttles.

Lois Edwards leaves to become the homemaker of some lucky(?) man.

Iris Hatwood leaves and takes her sensational voice along with her.

Mary Lou Jones leaves her position of taking care of milk to her sister, Peggy.

Martha Krempels leaves her basketball ability to Ruth Bible.

Margaret Logan leaves her place as majorette to Theresa Conti.

Barbara Neral is leaving to take up nurses' training. Don't get sick in the near future.

Jennie Nosek leaves to become the private secretary of a tall, blond, handsome, brilliant lawyer. Anything else you want, Jennie?

Doris Pugh leaves. Goodbye, Doris.

Doris Uber leaves Nancy Ziegler on the loose by herself.

Bill Cornell leaves to join the Superior Coal Company. Here is a chance to keep warm, girls.

Bill Davey leaves, still arguing with Mr. Loree.

Vincent Harshman leaves his ability to get around Mrs. Morris to anyone who has the technique.

Eugene Peters is leaving, but don't worry, girls, as his brother will be here next year to take his place.

CLASS WILL

Bill Litman leaves, still wearing those bright red sweaters.

Chester Sherman leaves for the Ideal Bakery.

Joe Szanny and Walter Siniawski leave together for the wide open spaces.

Edgar Wright leaves still trying to see how many "kids" he can get into his car.

George Young leaves still crooning "The Donkey Serenade."

Dick Zimmerman leaves to learn the tricks of the trade, as a lawyer, of course.

Jackie McDowell leaves her role in the Senior Play to anyone who can act.

Marie Giovanetti leaves her cheerleading job to Claire McKay.

Paul Mosora leaves his jitterbug ability to Kenny Brown.

Andy Gerlock leaves his silence to Bill Thomas.

Betty Thomas and Shirley McFarland leave for unknown parts of the world. Good luck, kids.

Jane Baxter has already left. My, but some people are impatient.

Bob Allan leaves. Hey, not so fast!

Walter Chambers leaves, to join the National Truck Drivers Union.

Ben Dickson leaves with his electric guitar to join the hula-hula girls of the South Sea Islands.

Frank Kalvoda leaves his position on the football team to Eric Bahor.

Charles Kalinich leaves his unsuccessful attempts of wolfhood to any freshman who can do better, or can they?

Byron McGhee leaves his trombone playing to Frank Gregoric.

Louis Ritch leaves his vocabulary to Bobby Ross.

Charles Sloan and Margie Torma leave together on the road to matrimony.

Martin Smith leaves his ability to tell jokes in English class to anyone who can think of them fast enough.

Anne Alexander leaves for Shaky's.

Bonnie Coxson leaves to become a bride.

Frances Edell leaves to join Billy Davey at noon in the hall.

Robert Bacon leaves his quiet ways to Bobby Green.

Billy Bullock leaves his height to Mike Faber.

Raymond Davies leaves Bobby Mild to blow taps at football games.

Dora Mae Cleveland and Jack Donaldson leave happily together.

John Filipovich leaves his black, curly hair to Kasmir Klemis.

Carl Jennings leaves all the girls swooning.

Robert Kovach hates to leave Betty Jane, but he must.

Richard Kroner leaves to continue his job at Yankee Lake.

Ed Nagy leaves still trying to invent something bigger and better than the atomic bomb.

Bill Prosser leaves, still trying to master his government.

Dick Reese leaves, and with him his famous laugh, if you can call it that.

 For twelve short years we sought for knowledge;
 Now some of us will go to college.
 Some may be lucky—shall we say?
 Some will work and call it a day.
 Some will marry and make a home;
 But wherever we go—whatever we do,
 From the depths of our hearts, we're grateful to you.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our history in Brookfield High School is a record of three, happy and worthwhile years.

As we look back to those past three years, we well remember September 5, 1944, as our very first day in high school. During that first week we received books and assignments, and became acquainted. The first leaders we chose were James Mullen, president; Louis Paquet, vice-president; Betty Manion, secretary; and Lawrence Young, treasurer. Our class colors were blue and silver; our flower, Lily of the Valley; and the motto, "We are what we make ourselves." We were very proud of our contributions to the football squad, to the basketball team, and to the band.

On September 5, one year later, we returned hoping to learn more and to accomplish much. Everyone looks back with delight to our "Candle Light Club Dance." To guide us through this year's activities, we selected Robert Green, president; James Davis, vice-president; Claire McKay, secretary; and Nancy Martin, treasurer. Our colors were red and white; our flower, the red rosebud; and our motto remained the same. This year we again contributed to the band, and to the basketball and football teams.

On September 3, 1946, we returned as upperclassmen vowing to do even better this year. Immediately we chose our leaders who were Robert Green, president; James Davis, vice-president; Nancy Martin, secretary; and Anna Theiss, treasurer. We were well represented in basketball, football, chorus, swing band, band, cheerleaders and majorettes.

This year we were represented in football by Kenneth Brown, James Mullen, Richard Ruttinger, Richard McBride, Kenneth Swogger, and Louis Jaquet. To the basketball team we contributed Kenneth Brown, James Mullen, and Robert Mullen.

Our Junior Class play, "Apple Blossom Time," was a huge success and we enjoyed putting it on.

The long-looked-forward-to Prom was all we had dreamed it would be.

Our last few days were packed full of all the good times high school people can have; and as we left, we were a little regretful but eager as the bright lights of our Senior year shone in the distance.

YOUR DAYS

In the early mist of morning
When the earth is quiet and still,—
Rise up and greet this new-born day
With strength of mind and will.

God gave it; let it bring to you
Through deep felt sorrow or strain,
Some bright new day and happiness
To ease another's pain.

Which way will you travel, the high road or the low;
Or the misty flats between?
Will you even climb that higher way
Which only a few have seen?

Be not satisfied with the misty flats,
Where someone else has trod;
But ever seek that higher way
Nearer to God.

"MAY QUEEN"

With robes of delicate white lace,
Her hair a crown of silvery curls,
She sits upon a throne of spring beauties—
A throne spread upon a carpet of emerald grass.
Sparkling drops of dew and rivulets of
The waking earth carry her sustenance.
Children and lovers throng the country lanes

Eager to praise the queen:
A gentle gracious queen,
A queen of beauty,
A queen of joy-giving,
A cherry tree in bloom!

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1945, we were ninety-seven frightened freshmen, who came to Brookfield High School. After the first few days we became organized.

Our officers were John Danko, president; James Mauck, vice-president; Lilly Bachick, secretary; and Nancy Slater, treasurer. We chose brown and yellow as our class colors and the yellow rosebud for our class flower. The motto we selected was "Our care is for the future and not the past". Our advisers were Mrs. Shreve and Miss Evans.

Our first dance was held on March 1, 1945. We had an enjoyable program and decorated the gymnasium to fit the occasion. The dance, being a huge success, proved that we were ready for the future.

On September 3, 1946, we returned as sophomores, ready to get down to business and accomplish something even more worthwhile. We chose Joseph Cherry as president; Marian Whitehead, vice-president; Jean Kovach, secretary; and Lilly Bachick as treasurer. Our class colors, flower, and motto remained the same. Our class advisers were Mrs. Shreve and Mr. Cherry.

Our class made several contributions to the athletic teams of the school. In football Harold Huntley, Reese Jones, James Gault, Edward Dahringer, James Giovanetti, Fred Hosack, James Kazowski, Philip Snyder, and Jack Hughes showed their ability. Robert Carrodus and Edward Manion were football managers. In basketball we were represented by Reese Jones, Leonard Fields, Edward Dahringer, Joseph Cherry, Carl Haller, Stanley Hetrick, Robert Miklos, Jack Hughes, Robert Zimmerman, Mervin Lunich, and Russell Young. Basketball Managers were John Rusko and Edward Manion. Joanne Tedrick was a cheerleader.

In addition to a number of musicians, we contributed Mary Alice Kidder and Janet Jackson to the band as majorettes. Donna Mae Smith also marched with the band and performed acrobatics at the football games.

If we continue to accomplish things as we have in the past two years, with "our care for the future," we will be able to say proudly "make way for the class of '49'!"

SOPHOMORE CLASS POEM

We are the rising sophomores,
That someday hope to be
 The most outstanding citizens
 of nineteen fifty-three.
By our determination a better world you'll see, and with the knowledge we have gained we'll try to keep men free.

We are the rising sophomores;
Determined we must be,
 Never to be divided,
 but remain a unity.

We are the rising sophomores,
In number quite a few:
 We strive to be the best,
 In all we say and do.
To set a good example, we ought to have in view—
 Faith and patience plus a little humor, too.

As onward through the years we go,
 We hope that you agree,
 We were the outstanding citizens
 of nineteen fifty-three.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September 3, 1946, if you had gone through the newly-painted halls of Brookfield High School, you would have seen shaking boys and girls standing around in groups. Obviously, we were new and showed that we were by the bewildered looks on our faces. Yes, we were the freshmen class of 1946, one hundred and ten green freshmen.

After we had gone through the ordeal of becoming "acquainted" with the upper-classmen, we organized and chose our class officers who were president, William Hill; vice-president, Robert Mild; secretary, Joyce Torma, and treasurer, Ina Shawl. Our colors are green and white; and our flower, the scarlet carnation. We chose "Forward ever, backward never" as our motto.

We proudly contributed several talented musicians to the Brookfield High School Band. We were also represented in the Swing Band.

To the football squad, we lent Frank Shivak, who displayed his power and knowledge of the game. We are also very proud of the many freshmen boys who brought the junior high's football and basketball teams through successful seasons with honors.

We, the freshmen class of 1946, hope to go through our next three years of high school following our motto: "Forward ever, backward never".

ACTIVITIES

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

First Row: P. Hughes, S. Yashnik, B. Neral, B. Green, J. Dick, J. Camerlengo.

Second Row: J. Nosek, P. Henighan, R. Rody, A. Theiss, D. M. Cleveland, B. Escover, B. L. Christy, M. Torma.

Third Row: V. Harshman, R. Retse, R. Davies, J. Donaldson, C. Jennings, P. Mosora.

The National Honor Society

On February 22, 1947, the Trumbull County Chapter of the National Honor Society held its banquet and initiatory exercises at Champion, Ohio. Sixteen new members from Brookfield were initiated into the society and the senior members were presented pins. Two members from Brookfield were elected officers of the Trumbull County Chapter at the election held in Vienna in the spring of 1946. They were Jack Donaldson, president, and Richard Reese, pianist.

The members of the National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. These may be interpreted in the following manner: The student must be in the upper third of his class, must participate in activities, must have an interest in the school, and must be able to get along with others.

The College Club

The College Club was organized to help seniors make intelligent choices in higher education. All members are required to take intelligence and aptitude tests. Most colleges insist that the high school graduate be in the upper third of his class. The first year of the college club was directed by Mr. Wepsic, an able and well-informed director. The discussion at the meetings was about the intended vocation of each member. Disadvantages and advantages were expressed as to why he so desired the profession he pointed out. Trips were made to the University of Pittsburgh to enlighten the students about college life.

The College Club in its first year of service was a help to the graduating class.

THE COLLECE CLUB

First Row: M. Logan, P. Hughes D. Cleveland.

Second Row: V. Harshman, E. Wright, J. Donaldson, R. Davies, C. Jennings, Mr. Wepsic.

Third Row: R. Zimmerman, R. Blair.

THE BOARD OF ACTIVITIES

Girls: J. Torma, J. Kovach, A. Theiss, B. Escover, M. Whitehead, L. Bachich, N. Martin, I. Shawl.

Boys: J. Kelly, R. Mild, J. Donaldson, G. Young, J. Cherry, E. Ghizzoni, R. Green, W. Hill.

The Board of Activities

The Board of Activities is a new organization which was organized last fall by Mr. Wepsic. The chief functions of this organization are to serve as an advisory body and to make suggestions for the social calendar of school activities.

The Board of Activities is composed of the presidents and all other class officers. Mr. Wepsic is the adviser.

Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of each month. At these meetings, Mr. Wepsic brings up suggestions for the development of the school calendar. The members also give their opinions and suggestions.

At the beginning of the school year, the Board of Activities sponsored a "Get-Acquainted Dance". Later they sponsored another dance and presented an assembly program for the student body and faculty members.

The Monitors

Fourteen girls donated their services to the betterment of our school by performing the duties of monitors. Each girl devoted one period each day to patrolling the halls, and warning people who were violating the rules of the school. They served many visitors coming into the building, thus giving them a good impression of Brookfield High School. Another duty was assisting Mr. Wepsic and Mrs. Rogers in getting messages and notices around the building in as little time as possible.

Along with their work, the group enjoyed many activities such as theater parties, skating parties, and dances. They proudly wear the pins awarded them for carrying out their duties efficiently.

Bernice Escover, captain of the monitors, deserves credit for her management of the group. Violet Bossick, capably served as her assistant.

THE MONITORS

First Row: D. Pugh, G. Keenist, N. Martin, L. Bachick, F. Bahor, M. L. Nagy, R. Schmidt.

Second Row: N. Hudavoni, V. Bossick, F. Edell, P. Henighan, A. Theiss, M. Bartolin, B. Escover, I. Hatwood.

DRUM MAJOR AND MAJORETTES

Center: Janet Jackson.

Drum Major and Majorettes

The drum major and majorettes, under the direction of Mr. Falkner, proudly led the Brookfield High School band. This year something new was added when Donna Mae Smith joined the majorettes. At the football games her routine consisted of tap and acrobatic stunts. The majorettes also had several new routines this year, two of which were the heart routine, and the very pretty routine dance to "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles". They also led in several parades and participated in the concert which took place in April. Don Dickson capably filled the position of Drum Major. The majorettes were Margaret Ann Logan, Sally Brown, Phyllis Raymond, Mary Alice Kidder, Janet Jackson and Donna Mae Smith. (Mary Alice Kidder moved from Brookfield so she is given honorable mention.) Margaret Ann Logan will be lost through graduation.

The Cheerleaders

"B-r-o-o-k-f-i-e-l-d, Brookfield", "Wa-rr-io-rs, Warriors", are the cries of Brookfield High and only Brookfield High. When you came out to the football and basketball games, your heart swelled with pride upon hearing the yells familiar to all Brookfield fans. You were also proud of the five peppy girls up front leading the crowd. We know you enjoyed hearing the old cheers and seeing our veteran cheerleaders, but this year several introductions were made. First, of all, we acquired a cheerleading director, Mrs. Holub. Second, three new cheerleaders were chosen. Last, but not least, many new cheers came into existence to live forever at Brookfield High. Marie and Betty will not be leading the cheering section next year; however, they will be backing up the team from the bleachers.

THE CHEERLEADERS

J. Tedrick, B. Thomas, H. Petrykowski, M. Giovanetti, J. Hughey.

THE BAND

With a roll of drums and a blare of trumpets, and amid the applause from the grandstand, all forty-eight alert members of the Brookfield High School Band marched out upon the football field for their first public appearance of the year. Sixteen new faces were present. Their colorful blue and gold uniforms added to the picturesque scene and we, in the stands, realized how proud we were of our band. We had the pleasure of listening to their fine music at assemblies, pep rallies, football games and parades.

Their biggest event was their minstrel which was closely followed by the Spring Band Concert. All these activities of the band were brought about by the untiring efforts of Mr. Falkner, the Music Director.

Clarinets: J. Danko, C. Jennings, L. Thomas, A. Alexander, E. Yarabenetz, D. Crago, M. Popovich, C. Sloan, E. Scott.

Saxophones: S. McFarland, D. Smith, R. Zimmerman, R. Miklos, D. M. Cleveland, C. Rozich.

Horns: R. Crnko, J. Baxter, B. Coppage, L. Ondich.

Trumpets: R. Davies, A. Baxter, R. Lindsay, R. Mild, F. Vargo, B. Allen, D. Doud, E. Wireman, R. McGhee, R. Hazlett.

Bells: M. Yarabenetz.

Flute: N. Slater.

Baritones: R. Bible, M. Metro.

Flagbearers: A. Gerlock, J. McCullough.

THE SWING BAND

First Row: C. Jennings, R. Zimmerman, R. Miklos, C. Sloan, J. Danko.

Second Row: D. Doud, R. Mild, R. Davies, N. Slater.

Back: W. Litman, R. Zimmerman, Mr. Falkner.

The Swing Band

How often in years to come will there re-echo in our ears the sweet, rhythmic, melodious, tantalizing strains of "The Swing Band!" Who knows if there be a Tommy Dorsey, Benny Goodman, or a Harry James in our midst.

This group of ten musical lads and one very attractive "boogie woogie" lass has been one of the most sensational activities in our school this year. They were organized immediately after football season with Charles Sloan as leader and Mr. Falkner as faculty director.

They furnished music for both Senior and Junior Plays, for the All-School Minstrel, for several evening dances, an assembly—and as a very rare treat—for noon dancing. Our thanks and best wishes go out to them for some fine entertainment.

The Ensemble

Vocal music has returned to Brookfield High School this year with an added feature, the "Ensemble". It is made up of nine talented girls representing all four classes of the school. The ensemble practices several types of music, including popular, classical, and some religious selections. Under the direction of Miss Boliver, vocal teacher, the girls have taken a keen interest in harmonizing.

Practice periods are held twice a week during activity period. Three part music is used.

The Ensemble made its first appearance in public at the December Latin Club entertainment. At this time they sang a Latin hymn entitled "Panis Angelicus," with Miss Iris Hatwood as soloist.

The Ensemble has definitely found its place in the music department of Brookfield High School.

THE MIXED CHORUS

The mixed chorus of Brookfield High School was organized at the beginning of the school term, under the direction of Miss Boliver. Both boys and girls tried out for chorus and Miss Boliver selected fifty-seven students from the group. The chorus met on Tuesday and Thursday of each week in activity period.

The Chorus made its first public appearance in the High School Auditorium, when it accompanied the Latin Club in the Christmas play. The girls of the Chorus wore white, long-sleeved blouses and dark skirts; and the boys wore white shirts and dark trousers. Selections presented were "My God and I" and "Winter Wonderland", in addition to the Christmas Carols.

On this occasion the chorus presented Miss Boliver with a corsage of red roses in appreciation of her fine work.

First Row: G. Keenist, E. Shakely, D. Pope, M. Tuck, J. Nosek, J. Dick, J. McDowell, B. L. Christy, R. Schmidt, M. Wanchism, N. Martin, P. Jones, M. L. Nagy, B. Thomas, E. Yarabenetz, E. Vitello, I. Hatwood, J. Davis.

MINSTREL OF '47

On Wednesday evening, February 12; Thursday evening, February 13; and Thursday evening, February 20; the Minstrel of '47 was presented in Brookfield, Addison, and Stevenson Schools respectively. It was welcomed each time by an enthusiastic audience. This was the first minstrel that Brookfield High had presented since 1943.

Vincent Harshman was on hand as the interlocutor. He had four capable assistants; namely "Mushmouth," (Carl Jennings) the most truthful man in the world; "Lightnin'," (Richard Reese) the fastest man on two feet; "Meatball," (Eugene Peters) the most intelligent individual; and "Sunshine," (Donald Bible) the quiet, dignified gentleman who never (?) had anything to say.

The audience was kept in an hilarious mood by the antics of these four comedians. To add to the fun, a very obnoxious person kept interrupting the show.

The soloists were Margaret Wanchism, William Hill, Richard Reese, Ruthe Rody, Betty Jane Allen, Margie Yarabenetz, Robert Green, Edward Ghizzoni, Iris Hatwood, and Carl Jennings. Tap numbers were performed by Donna Smith and Pauline Fields. Special numbers by the entire cast were a spiritual entitled, "Go Down, Moses"; Jerome Kern's immortal, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes"; and that popular number, "Open the Door, Richard." Incidentally, does anyone know whether George (Richard) Young has opened that door yet?

Included in the cast was a chorus of fifty mixed voices.

The entire production was under the direction of Mr. Falkner.

"NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th"

Guilty or not guilty. The verdict is up to you. The "Night of January 16th," a comedy drama in three acts, written by Ayn Rand was presented by the Senior Class. Two performances were given: one in Brookfield High School on December 5, and another in Addison Auditorium on December 6.

The "Night of January 16th," was the first dramatic type play to be attempted in Brookfield for several years, and it was received with hearty applause and praise. The jury was chosen from the audience. Karen Andre was pronounced guilty the first night and not guilty the second night.

Peggy Hughes portrayed Karen Andre; George Young, District Attorney; Jennie Nosek, his secretary; Raymond Davies, Defense Attorney; June Dick, his secretary; Doris Pugh, Matron; Richard Zimmerman, Bailiff; Martin Smith, Judge Heath; Vincent Harshman, Clerk; Edgar Wright, Dr. Kirkland; Mary Thomas, Mrs. John Hutchins; Donald Bible, Homer Van Fleet; Eugene Peters, Elmer Sweeney; Stella Yashnik, Nancy Lee Faulkner; Dora Mae Cleveland, Magda Swenson; Jack Donaldson, John Grahm Whitfield; Bernice Escover, Jane Chandler; Richard Reese, Sigurd Jungquist; Carl Jennings, Larry Regan; Jacqueline McDowell, Roberta Van Rensslear; Bonnie Jones, Stenographer; John Filipovich, Court Attendant; and William Litman, Policeman.

A crew of stage, property, make-up, and costume hands helped to make the play a success. The cast also wishes to acknowledge its indebtedness to the publicity managers, ushers, and the various committees. Last but not least they wish to thank their directors, Mrs. Morris and Mr. Edwards. The seniors have proudly added another star to their flag of success.

BEHIND THE SCENES CREW

First Row: S. McFarland, B. Christy, M. Torma, M. Giovanctti, A. Baxter.

Second Row: Mr. Edwards, A. Alexander, J. Snyder, M. L. Jones, M. Faber, J. Shaner, Mrs. Morris.

Third Row: M. Logan, R. Allan, E. Nagy, W. Baxter, W. Bullock, M. Guatta.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

First Row: A. Coppage, M. Haun, C. McKay, N. Martin, D. Millikin, J. Hughey, Miss Russell.

Second Row: J. Davis, R. Hazlett, R. Green, R. Mullen, F. Taylor, F. Fordeley, F. Gregoric.

"APPLE BLOSSOM TIME"

With all the freshness and appeal of spring-time the Junior Class of 1947 presented the delightful comedy "Apple Blossom Time." Two performances were given, the first at Brookfield High School on March 20 and the second at Addison on March 21. Both performances brought forth favorable comments and chuckles from the audience.

The cast of characters consisted of Bob Matthews, Robert Green; Charlie Lawrence, Richard Hazlett; Spud McClosky, Robert Mullen; Mickey Maguire, James Davis; Cal Pickens, Fred Taylor; Betty Ann Stewart, Nancy Martin; Nancy Prescott, Joan Hughey; Loretta Harris, Claire McKay; Polly Biddle, Dorothy Millikin; Malvina Kurtz, Ruthe Rody; Mrs. Forrest, Marjorie Haun; Annabel Spriggins, Shirley Dickinson.

Bob Matthews first experience in a small town is a violent encounter with an 18 year old "imprudent whirlwind of a girl", who rouses his temper nearly to the boiling point, and then, laughs at his threats. Imagine his dismay when he finds that this is the girl over whom he is to act as guardian. This was brought about through a series of very amusing incidents. But in the end Dan Cupid steps in and saves the day for everyone. The constable, Cal Pickens, who had been courting the cook Polly Biddle, for years and continued to do so, brought many laughs. Spriggins, the old maid, was interested in any and every man.

The management included: Stage Managers, Charles Paddock, Robert Ross, Richard Ruttinger, Anthony Verroco; Make-up and Properties, Shirley Dickinson, Helen Petrykowski; Business Managers, Beverly Green, Patricia Henighan, Betty Jane Allen, Anna Theiss. Directors, Mrs. C. Wepsic, Miss G. Russell.

Third Row: E. Nagy, J. Donaldson, D. Bible, G. Young.

El Grande Quince

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Mr. Edwards, is composed of second year Spanish students. The club was formed in order to better acquaint the students with the language and customs of Spanish speaking countries.

The club presented a short program in the School's first assembly, early in the fall, consisting of a number of skits and Spanish songs. This was to help the students understand a few of the "Espanol phrases" and customs.

The following officers were elected: "presidente," Jack Donaldson; "vice-presidente," George Young; "secretaria," Dora Mae Cleveland; and "tesorero," Richard Reese.

Future Homemakers Assoc.

The Future Homemakers Association, under the direction of Miss Russell, is comprised of girls interested in Home Economics. The purpose of the club is to emphasize the high school girl's ability to use her home economics training in meeting everyday problems and to obtain knowledge beneficial for future homemaking. The girls served a Christmas Tea for the student body and members of the faculty. At their Christmas party they collected toys and fruit for the Children's Home in Warren. In January, the officers of the club went to Akron to attend the annual regional F. H. A. convention.

The officers of the club are president, Dorothy Haller; vice-president, Iris Hatwood; secretary, Betty Thomas; treasurer, Joanne Emch; historian, Joan Shaner; parliamentarian, Delores Mittal; program leaders, Jean Snyder and Stella Yashnick; and reporter, Frances Edell.

Third Row: L. Simpson, W. Thomas, E. Jewell, J. Davis, D. Mitcheltree, B. Cameron, G. Durisko.

Fourth Row: R. Mild, E. Gladysz, R. Fowler, T. Martin, W. Hill.

The Latin Club

The Latin Club is composed of first and second year Latin students, and juniors and seniors who have completed two years of Latin.

The constant aims of the Latin Club are to give a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, customs and language; to understand the practical and cultural value of Latin; to interest fellow students therein; and to enjoy social fellowship as a group.

The club meets the third Monday of each month.

In October the club sponsored a Sweater Hop, at which time a Sweater Girl and Boy of 1946 were chosen to rule for the evening. The gym was decorated appropriately for the occasion and refreshments were sold.

As another contribution to school activities, the club presented a Christmas Pageant for their parents, teachers and friends. The older members of the club acted out the various Christmas scenes while the new members sang Christmas carols in Latin.

Each member may be known by the club pin he wears. A formal initiation was held for the new members at the end of the first semester. Following the initiation ceremony a dance was held and refreshments were served.

The motto is "Excelsior." The colors are purple and gold.

Mr. Slater and Mr. Wepsic are honorary members. Miss Hickox is the adviser, and officers are Margaret Logan, First Consul; Edward Dahringer, Second Consul; Jack Hughes, Quaestor; Margaret Husosky, Scriba; Joseph Cherry, Censor; Albert Chambers, Mary Ann Scanlon, Janet Jackson, Nellie Gardy and Mary Alice Kidder, Vestil Virgins; and John Rusko and James Giovanetti, Counselors-at-arms.

Third Row: J. Rusko, S. Hetrick, J. Davis, E. Dah-ringer, J. Hughes, J. Cherry, F. Taylor, P. Snyder, A. Ver-roco, W. Quinlan.

The Biology Club

The Biology Club was reorganized this year under the direction of Mrs. Shreve. Only those having an A or B average and who were interested in biology were permitted to join. The club, which consisted of 37 members, met the first Monday of each month.

The main objective of the club was to keep alive an interest in the field of biology. Motion pictures relating to biology were shown at each meeting. A one-act play was presented by the club for an assembly program in March.

The club concluded its activities with a field trip to Pittsburgh to visit Highland Zoo and Phipps Botanical Gardens.

The officers are Edward Dahringer, president; Beverly Green, vice-president; Nancy Martin, secretary; and Betty Manion, treasurer.

The Commercial Club

November 4 marked the third birthday of the Brookfield High School Commercial Club. This year, the club is under the direction of Mr. Griffin, who is head of the commercial department of the school.

Members of the organization elected the following officers: Margie Torma, president; Jean Camerlengo, vice-president; Marian Baran, secretary; and June Dick, treasurer.

The meetings were held on the first Monday of each month. The club consisted of students majoring in commercial subjects.

As the symbol of the Commercial Club, pins with the guiding light were chosen.

The members of the club were mainly concerned with the problems of the business world. Discussions on business problems were some of the main features of the meetings.

The "Hilltopper" Staff

The Hilltopper, our monthly news publication was revived this year after a lapse of several years. This was largely through the initiative and advice of our Principal, Mr. Wepsic.

Mrs. Loch was appointed editorial adviser to the staff and Mrs. Holub, adviser in the typing and physical make-up of the paper.

The "Echo" Salesmen

We have not tried to turn out any "Fuller-brush Men", but we are proud of the excellent work done by the sales representatives. The senior class of 1947 wish to express their gratitude to them for the time and effort they have spent in selling the annual to their classmates, the alumni, and residents of the community. In November the Echo Staff put on an assembly program to advertise the Yearbook, at which time the sales representatives were selected. A capable and reliable student was chosen from each home room. Every representative has proved himself dependable and trustworthy. Under the direction of Bill Mullen and Margie Torma they have had a huge share in helping to make the Echo of 1947 a success. We thank them again for their kind assistance.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL

The Warriors triumphed in four out of nine gridiron games this past season. They bowed only to such strong teams as Sharpville, Hubbard, Ashtabula Harbor, Hickory, and Mercer. All of our boys except three lettermen were "green" at the games but showed up well under pressure. The source of the Warrior's attack was the great tactful blocking by the linemen. The team, under the coaching of Ramon Harmon and Stephen Sedlacko, showed great improvement over the previous year.

PIGSKIN QUEEN AND ATTENDANTS

Miss Peggy Hughes (center) reigned as the charming Warrior Pigskin Queen at the Brookfield Homecoming Game held on October 19, 1946. Her attractive attendants were Miss Bonnie Jones (left) and Miss Dora Mae Cleveland (right). On the evening of the same day, the three young ladies were honored at the Homecoming Dance, at which time they were presented with red rosebud corsages.

ALL-ROUND SPORTSMAN

Jack is the ideal boy to represent his team and school. He is a "clean-cut", modest boy, as well as a good athlete. Also, he was elected president of the Trumbull County chapter of the National Honorary Society.

Jack was awarded the Optimist's Trophy for displaying the best all-round sportsmanship during the 1946 football campaign.

BASKETBALL

The 1946-47 basketball season opened with a victory for B. H. S. The Warriors defeated West Middlesex 28-24.

Throughout the season the team met with strong opposition and was not always able to overcome it. Whether the odds were for or against them, each of the players displayed good sportsmanship, teamwork, and skill.

The season also closed with victory for B. H. S. when they again defeated West Middlesex in a closely-contested battle 32-30.

Much credit must be given Coach Harmon for his excellent leadership.

Nine varsity members will be lost through graduation.

RESERVES

The record which the reserve team has chalked up during the 1946-47 season has proved that they have formed a solid foundation for future teams of B. H. S. Having won nine games and lost ten, the boys have done better than expected in view of the fact that they have had little experience in the game. Mr. Loree taught the boys the fundamentals of the sport and coached them in this successful season.

JUNIOR HIGH

The junior high team, consisting of 7th, 8th, and 9th graders, was organized this year by Coach Sedlacko. The boys did exceptionally well by winning fourteen and losing three games. They participated in the Struthers Junior High Invitational Tournament in which they won three games and advanced to the semi-finals when they were defeated by Youngstown North 33-30.

GREETINGS TO THE CLASS OF '47

As you leave the friendly influence of Brookfield High School and enter into a new and more serious phase of life we wish you a full measure of success and happiness in every respect.

CLASS WILL

Julia Wisniowski leaves her job in the bookroom to her best customer, Bobby Carrodus.

Mary Zdelar leaves, still trying to get to school on time.

Martha Tuck leaves her quiet ways to Alberta Chambers.

Bill Baxter leaves his expert cheek-to-cheek dancing to Lyle Fitch.

Frank Mahanovich leaves to go deer hunting—two legged ones.

Peggy Hughes leaves her art ability to Charles Devite.

Joan Shaner leaves, and gives her shorthand book to anyone who cares to worry that much about any subject.

Anna Marie Vultagio leaves her jitterbug steps to Shirley Gilliland.

Pauline Fields leaves to join Don in Youngstown.

Dorothy Haller leaves her job in the office to anyone who can find the spare time.

Mary Guaetta leaves all of us to join Steve. My goodness, another engagement.

Bonnie Jones leaves her choice of style to Betty Say.

Delores Mittal leaves her job of literary editor to Sally Brown if she has the patience to carry it out.

Dot Rieser leaves her quiet ways to Anita Coppage.

Mary Saneto leaves all her work on the newspaper staff to anyone who has that much ability.

Jean Snyder leaves her desk in Room 15 to her brother Philip, whenever he gets there.

June Dick leaves her typing ability to Richard Ruttinger.

Barbara Lou Christy and Ann Horvath leave for that certain theater in Youngstown. Isn't that grand?

Bill Mullen leaves his bashful ways with the girls to Bob Miklos.

Delores Coxson leaves her long, blonde, curly hair to Marilou Mauck.

John Nasin leaves his title of "handsome" to Robert Zimmerman.

Eugene Calvert leaves, wishing a certain freshman girl could leave with him.

Irene Bohach gladly leaves her shorthand book to anyone who needs one.

George Bogner leaves his ability to play basketball to Leonard Fields.

Mary Faber leaves to join her best girl friend's, brother's, mother's son. Complicated, isn't it?

George Shardy leaves his detective books to anyone who doesn't have anything to do in study hall.

Mary Thomas leaves, still wondering if a certain person in Room 15 likes her. We wonder!

Won't you give us a chance to run,
Before you draw your little gun;
And shoot us three up to the sun,
Since everything said was all in fun!

CLASS PROPHECY

Eugene Peters is counting the days until Christmas, for he's to play Santa Claus in a department store talking to the babies and kissing the ladies.

Bill Prosser is driving a 1957 Cadillac. His home is a tent on the corner of Hollywood and Vine—"Wolfe's Hangout."

Dick Reese is teaching Carsone's customers how to eat spaghetti. Bring along your scissors.

Louis Ritch is manager of the "Toy Shoppe." His today's special is squirt guns, five cents each or two for a dime.

Mary Saneto is selling hotdogs at the Brookfield-Notre Dame game—for Brookfield, of course. Betty Thomas is cheering for Notre Dame.

George Shardy, Walter Siniawski, and Edgar Wright are going from house to house trying to convince housewives that "Duz, does everything."

Jennie Nosek is dictating shorthand to her three year old daughter, at one hundred words a minute. She keeps saying, "You'll be as good as me someday."

Joe Szanny is editor of a national magazine entitled "Calling All Horse-Thieves."

Chester Sherman operates a private bus line from Masury to points west. All single women from 18 to 36 ride free.

Margie Torma and Charles Sloan are starring in "Two Silhouettes in the Night."

Martin Smith is following in his father's footsteps. He's driving the slightly dilapidated Bus No. 1 on the same old route.

Mary Thomas is chief corn beef and cabbage cook at Doris Uber's Luncheon Room.

Martha Tuck is feeding her children some of the foods she learned to prepare in home economics.

Julia Wisniowski, a small town girl, has made good. She's chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Stella Yashnik and her husband report that this is their night in—no one to watch Junior.

George Young is still taking eleven months' vacation every year so he may go hunting for that DEAR.

Mary Zdelar's potatoes have won first prize over all potatoes raised in the Buckeye State.

Dick Blair is modeling clothes in the big city—men's clothes, that is.

Yvonne Brownlee is designing a new dummy for Edgar Bergen.

June Dick is an ideal wife. She sits home every night and darns her husband's socks.

Jackie McDowell is trying to convince her little daughter that you can write the word "book" with a typewriter even though there is only one "O".

Mary Anne Guaetta is taking her little daughter to school. Mary Anne explains to the first grade teacher, Doris Pugh. "If she needs punished, slap the child next to her, and she'll get frightened."

Carl Jennings just gave a speech on agricultural farming. Farmer Bob Bacon says "A day's rain would do a heap more good."

CLASS PROPHECY

The Smile, Anna Marie Vultagio, is appearing on the covers of several national magazines.

Delores Coxson—pardon me, Mrs. Harlan Piper, is teaching her husband how to cook.

Peggy Hughes is Pin-Up Queen of the United States Army. It is rumored that the Navy and Marines are voting likewise.

Shirley McFarland is proprietor of Shakey's, now known as "Shirley's' Shake Shop."

There, you jolly good Seniors,
Is your future from the gypsy crystal ball.
We know that your fortunes
Will be fulfilled, one and all.

"What kind of class would my class be if all its members were just like me."

—o—

If you take a chance and win,
You are a smart young man with vision.
If you take a chance and lose,
Then you are a stupid fool with no foresight.
But if you do not take any chance at all,
Then you may wake up some day,
To find that the Parade has passed YOU by.

All the greatest things in human life are one syllable things—faith, love, hope, joy, trust, God.

—o—

Don't forget that a man is not paid for having brains, but for using them.

—o—

Our lives are songs; God writes the words
And we set them to music at pleasure;
And the song grows glad, or sweet or sad,
As we choose to fashion the measure.
